- Pray for Edie & Her Family - On July 26, Edie Reidel suffered a massive stroke and was taken to Aurora South Hospital, where her family continues to watch over her. To all who have been involved in the formation of the Heather Ridge Metro District—Edie has been the strength beside the “throne” through it all; now is a good time to call on whatever deity you choose to offer strength and courage to all involved, especially Errol who has attained sainthood with his devoted attention. May the sympathy and well wishes of the entire city surround Edie, her caregivers and family at this stressful time—our love is with you all! -- City of Aurora Colorado Ward IV Newsletter 2014 Aug

- Edie was a very dear soul and brought sunshine to many of her friends and fellow golfers. Van and I send our thoughts and prayers to Errol and appreciate his total devotion to Edie over the years. We believe she is in a better place now. She will be dearly missed! -- With Love, Ginny & Van Lewis
- My Dear Friend -- What do you say about a friend who never spoke a harsh word? Edie's smile was always there for you, and she always followed it with words of love and caring. She was always interested in what you were doing, not what she was involved with. The word "I" was never in her vocabulary, So this is all about Edie. My dear friend, who played golf with me, what great times we had. Laughing, talking, and just plain good fun. Golf was not the priority here, just being together was what it was all about. I always knew she would have the right words for me on the other end of the phone, whenever I needed them. She was my sister that I never had, my friend who rocked and her spirit will always be with me. I love you. Patti Gookin
- I am so sorry . . . She was a sweet woman. What can I do? – David Russell
- Thanks for telling us about Edie. We will all miss her. She was so elegant. The two of you had so many happy times together. I know you will miss her sooo very much. Lou Ann Baker
- Thank you for keeping us all informed about Edie. Even though we knew her end was near, it's still so hard to digest. It seems just a short while ago that she was at my house, enjoying herself. You were such a dear, loving and caring friend, there for her until the end. She was so fortunate and, I'm sure, comforted to know you were there for her. How very sad. MJ
- Edie was our blessing! She continues to bless us as she touched our lives in so many positive ways. Her laughter, zest, vivaciousness, genuine concern and care for each person, will continue with us in spirit. Edie will always hold a special place in our hearts. I thank Edie for teaching us wonderful lessons through compassion and understanding. We are so fortunate that Edie shared a lovely companionship with our Dad. We thank you Edie and we will miss you dearly! Stefanie

- It's difficult to know what to say just now . . . except that you're thought of in sympathy and friendship. I am very sad to hear about Edie's passing. She was such a big part of your life. My prayers are with you during this difficult time. Edie was one of the first people I met when I moved into Burgundy. I heard about Edie's stroke and then her passing through the ladies at the Heather Ridge Golf League. I joined the league earlier this year and learned from the ladies that Edie was a member as well. I feel sad that Edie and I never had the chance to play a round of golf together; but then she may have run off the course seeing what a terrible golfer I am. We will miss our classy, wonderful Edie. Penny Pendergast
- With deepest sympathy - Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. She is going to be missed. Loren & Bobbie Janulewicz

- From the first days we met 38 years ago as new residents of Burgundy to the last glass of wine we shared just weeks ago, the times I spent with Edie were always joyful; full of fun and laughter. The golf games, trips, workouts, parties, meals and just spending time together were so special because of this gracious, beautiful and spirited lady. May her family find comfort in the special times spent with Edie, and may you, Errol, her loving companion for so many years, find peace in the knowledge that you shared such a wonderful love. I will miss you greatly, Edie, my friend. Mary Lou Secor

- Friends Ron & Jo Reedy moved to Florida in 2007. We visited them, 3 years later. Edie created a plaque for them that remains on their wall. It reads: "ODE TO JO - I know two people, Ron and Jo - Who retired to Florida, down below - I got a call from Ron a few weeks later - And when I asked about Jo, he said a gator ate her! - - Well that gator went on trial and was sentenced to jail - And when she heard the verdict, she began to cry and wail. - She gave a hiccup and wouldn't you know - A little cough and out popped Jo. - - Dressed in a black robe with a gavel in her hand - Jo faced the jury and took the stand - "The gator has repentance so let's reduce the sentence. - No harm has been done and I'm feeling hardy" - "Let's forget all this and have a party!" - - Now what of the gator, you may inquire- - Well I will tell you and I'm no liar. - - The gator, whose name is Olivia - was sentenced in Aurora and has taken over Trivia!" (Before moving Jo was the Trivia chair at the club)
- If you ever are called for jury duty in Aurora you will see Edie. She is the court reporter in the video that plays weekly for jury orientation.
- Edie was a beautiful person inside and out. She always had such a sweet smile & I remember her from the Joslins days. Her store was my favorite place to shop & I often

- Thinking of you - Comfort, peace to you in this time of sadness. Errol, I . . . wish to send my condolences to you for your loss. Barbara Rupp
- Errol – Between April 2013 and March 2014 both my wife and father passed away after battling cancer. For me the grief was something I had to take head on and experience while everyday caring for my son and daughter and going to work as well. With time grief changes. It doesn't go away, but it does change and we have adapted (for lack of a better word) to how things are for us without mommy and grandpa/dad. Today I can enjoy memories of Tracey without them being clouded with intense grief, and I believe that you too will eventually find that your grief too has changed and you can have memories of Edie that bring joy and smiles to you! My deepest sympathy and my true understanding. Sean Allen
- We will always remember Edie for her warm, kind way. Our thoughts and prayers to her family. Jim and Sharon Gunderson
- Dear Errol just wanted to let you know that we are thinking of you. Edie was a very nice person and a beautiful woman, we liked her very much. We are so sad to learn of her passing. Sincerely, Bill and Marcia Bradley (Taffy's parents)
- Edie, according to Molly-- Edie was in heaven long before her physical body left us bereft of her beautiful presence. Edie was GRACE, personified. I admire several things about this amazing woman—first, she always looked dressed and put together for an outing with The Queen Mother Herself. Edie had a beauty and a presence that just defied ordinary. Beautiful, ya, attractive, yes. But “Put together” in a distinguished manner; Never a hair out of place or mismatched patterns; Always the vortex of attractive. How did she do that? She didn't; it was her natural beauty allowed to blossom. Second, tho she rarely spoke up, her voice always filled the room with its calm presence, graceful observations and dignity. Whenever she was present, I could look at her and feel the calm confidence infuse my very being. She would nod, tip her perky little head, cock her ear; all gestures to tell me she was listening and in touch with the conversation. Third, Never did she mutter a bad or negative thought. That is my lesson from her to the future going forward. She was an angel before her time. Thank you, Edie; for your presence in our lives. I fully expect you to update the angel robes before donning one; after all, that floor length style went out years ago. My most sincere condolences to my Heather Ridge Community; gather together, stay strong, and support one another in this sad time. Molly Markert Aurora City Council Ward IV 15151 E Alameda Parkway Aurora, CO 80012
- I miss Edie for many reasons, as my favorite sales rep at Joslin's and then Dillard's, to seeing the pretty lady with the little white dog, as a golfing partner, luncheon planner, and just as an enthusiastic friend ready to sit on the patio or go out to dinner. we loved

- Edie... cowboy boots that she adored...beautiful white hair...UAHR Social Committee...Mexican Train...a mischievous smile in her eyes...a quick smile...a dry humor...her deep love of Errol are some memories that I carry with me. Errol, I keep a quote, that was given to me by a friend, on my desk. I hope it helps to comfort you as it does me. "We cannot always understand the ways of Almighty God - the crosses which He sends us, the sacrifices which He demands of us...But we accept with faith and resignation His holy will with no looking back to what might have been, and we are at peace." Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy - With acceptance comes peace. Bette Secord

- A thousand beautiful memories of such a precious life—May Edie forever live on in the memory of your heart. I know the pain you are feeling in your heart at times must seem unbearable. It will someday subside; but know that we are just a few steps away for ice cream, golf, but more importantly to listen and talk. We never have enough time with those we love. Please call on us anytime. God Bless. Dave & Mary Lou Secor
- Once in a while Edie would entertain at a party by telling one or both of the jokes only she could tell so well: “At times I like to have martini, two at the very most; three, I’m under the table, four I’m under my host.” ----- & ----- A church's bell ringer passed away. So they posted the position and a man came in with no arms wanting the job. The clergy weren't sure he could do it, but he convinced them to let him try it. They climbed the bell tower and the guy ran toward the bell and hit it with his face and rang the bell. So they gave him the job. After ringing the bell for a few days he ran to ring the bell, tripped, bounced off the bell and fell to the sidewalk below. A crowd gathered and the constable said to the crowd, “Does anyone know this man?” A voice from the crowd yelled out, "No, but his face rings a bell." ----- The next day, the dead bell ringer's brother comes in for the again vacant bell ringer position. He also has no arms but he is hired to ring the bell also with his face. Again after a few days of ringing the bell, he climbs up to the belfry, runs at the bell, trips and falls to the sidewalk below. Again a crowd gathers and the constable asks, “Does anyone know this man?” Again a voice from the crowd responds, "No, but he's a dead ringer for his brother." – Edie Reidel
- Someone so much a part of us can never really be gone. All the words in the world would not be enough to say how sorry I am for your loss. Edie was such a special lady. I know what a hard time this is, but I am thinking of you and send my love. Love Billie Jackson
- It is hard for friends to see friends hurting. There are caring hearts and willing hands so ready to support you right now. I have many fond memories of our times on the golf course, dinners at our house, your and Edie's and at the Harres'. Edie was loved by your many friends. I have read the emails and beautiful articles in the HR news, etc. I will of course be at the celebration of her life in September. With love and sympathy, Linda Jorgensen
- Edie's is listed on the Heather Ridge Hole-In-One Hall of Fame. It happened on hole number 8 and was witnessed by Linda and Tom Jorgensen and Errol on August 2, 2007, exactly 7 years prior to her passing. When she realized that it went in the hole, she turned and said, “So what is the big deal about getting a hole in one? That was easy.”
- May the most precious memories of her beautiful life bring comfort and peace. Edie was a wonderful neighbor and will truly be missed. Sincere Condolences, Marian Brennan

- I want to offer my sincere sympathy to you, your family and Edie's family. I am taking Edie' passing very hard. I just didn't know she was going through bad times. Thank God it was only the past 90 days. My heart aches for your broken hearts. Just thank our Savior for 15 wonderful years of caring and devotion that you both shared. My special memories of Edie will be in 2003. Just after an open heart surgery. You called, were coming over tomorrow night for a cookout on your patio. You and Edie had everything ready to go. Four of the biggest steaks, corn on the cob, baked potatoes and desert too. A few years later another big surprise. You called & said, "We are coming for a visit." I can't remember what was wrong with me then. You and Edie brought the most beautiful dozen of red roses, plus a very nice visit. How thoughtful. Edie's appearance always impeccable, sweet lady with a beautiful smile. She will be greatly missed by all. I can imagine her in heaven playing with the fun angels. Gloria Bromfield

- I am sorry for your loss as well as the loss for us all, as she was such a delight in our lives. I only pray that you will be alright. I know that this is a tough time and hope that you can find the support that you need . . . A little story to make you smile. My very first day working in the pro shop after the tragedy of Dick Jorgensen, Edie was the first person that I met in the Pro Shop. She came in to redeem some gift certificates before the whole place shut down. You were at home, and she came over to buy you something with your gift certificates. She couldn't decide what to buy and she was on the phone to you to see what she should get. It was so sweet! So Edie has a place in my heart as my introduction to Heather Ridge and such a sweet person. I will always remember her. My Love and sympathy -- Sandy Rammage

- Edie remembers Lieschen -- Lieschen, my mother's best friend, would be on my list of the ten people who have had the greatest influence in my life. There are many childhood memories like summer vacations at the cottage in Round Lake. Tante Lieschen would take us the beach, for swimming and a picnic, or on a hike to the white farm, stopping to pick raspberries on the way home. On my wedding day I remember, with fondness, going to Lieschen and Ferdi's house in Oak Park. Lieschen helped me get dressed for my special day but, of course, you must know that I received a lot of advice too! When our children were very young, my husband, Bud, and I moved to Antioch, IL. I was elated when Lieschen and Ferdie built a house very near to us and Lieschen and I became very close during this time, as I would pick her up every week to go grocery shopping and afterward we would have lunch together and chat. She would help me with my children, taught me to become a good seamstress, and shared her cooking secrets with me. She was my mentor and, yes, again I received a lot of advice. Lieschen was such a dear friend to me all through the years and I will truly miss her, as I miss Ferdi, and my own mother and father. I can still see all four of them sitting at the dining room table sharing a plum cake and a pot of coffee, and I can hear Lieschen advising Ferdi "Don't feel sad, life isn't for the weak, life is for the strong." I will always remember that bit of advice whenever I am feeling down. Edie Reidel -- January, 2006

- Errol, I am shocked and very saddened by the passing of this lovely woman. As I've told you, I met Edie many years ago, perhaps over 20, when I first moved into Strawberry, she and her friend (Barbara Wright) walked their dogs (Rudy and Greta) together, schnauzers I recall, we spoke often and she was always pleasant and kind. I've known loss Errol, it's very hard to lose a love, I'll say a prayer for you, very sorry, Condolences, Terry Bellomo

- This poem was found among Edie's things with a copper penny attached – Today I found a penny, just laying on the ground. But it's not just a penny, this little coin I found. . . If you find a penny, it comes from Heaven. . that's what my Grandma told me . . She said the Angels toss them down. So I know that it's true. – She said that when an Angel misses you, she'll toss a penny down; sometimes it is to cheer you up, to make a smile out of your frown. – So don't pass by a penny that's laying on the ground; pick it up. . please do! It might be a penny from Heaven that an Angel tossed down to you.
